THE MARLOW PLAYERS

presents

Rookery Nook by Ben Travers

This is one of the funniest plays to come from Ben Travers, the great English farce writer. It took the West End by storm when it was first produced and the dialogue and plot, in which two men about town find their holiday cottage invaded by a train of girls, an admiral and a strong-arm German stepfather, not to mention the wife and redoubtable mother in law, is a triumph of English Farce.
