ALL SAINT'S CHURCH, BOYNE HILL, PRESENTS

MARLOW PLAYERS IN

CALAMITY IN THE CLOISTERS

Set in a suitably anonymous Cathedral, where the passions run high, the opening croquet match sets the scene for vicious tactics and manoeuvring in which the very different and distinctive personalities of a number of cathedral worthies results in the sudden death of one of their number in very curious circumstances.

With a cast of colourful characters, and a script of witty wordplay, this new play will have audiences absorbed, entertained, chuckling and intrigued. Every character has a motive and an opportunity: but which had the means? The audience will have the opportunity to work out the murderer and the method during the interval, and all will be revealed in the final devastating denouement. And there is a prize for the correct conclusion!
